My deepest condolences to Hartmut's family. We both lived in Sachsenheim over 40 years ago and just reconnected 1 year ago. I'll never forget his love for his dogs and the USA. I miss you Hartmut.

While our heart is broken, we know that one day we will see our brother again. Praying for the Hausser family during this time. Hartmut was a friend to all, and gave all to his friends. Thank God that this life is not all there is.
